

of benefits payable with respect to weeks of unemployment occurring after the expiration of such current benefit year and prior to April 1, 1940, shall be the amount payable under Section 3 (c) of the new law without deduction for benefits paid or payable during such current benefit year, provided that, the amount so payable shall be reduced to the extent necessary so that the aggregate amount of benefits payable to any such individual with respect to weeks of unemployment during the period beginning on the first day of such current benefit year and ending on March 31, 1940, shall not exceed an amount equal to four times the weekly benefit amount (determined pursuant to the new law) times the number of calendar quarters, (counting any fraction of a calendar quarter as if it were a calendar quarter) which comprise such period.

Saving Clause.

1936 (Dec. Sp. Sess.), ch. 1, sec. 20.

21. The legislature reserves the right to amend or repeal all or any part of this Article at any time; and there shall be no vested private right of any kind against such amendment or repeal. All the rights, privileges, or immunities conferred by this Article or by acts done pursuant thereto shall exist subject to the power of the Legislature to amend or repeal this Article at any time.

1936 (Dec. Sp. Sess.), ch. 1, sec. 21.

22. If any provision of this Article, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of this Article and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby. If any provision, clause, sentence or section of this Article shall be declared to be invalid or in violation of any provision of the State or Federal Constitution, the remainder of said Article shall stand and be effective notwithstanding.
