

sions of this Article; or that shall violate or fail to comply with, any order of the Commission of which due notice shall be given; or that shall violate any of the provisions of this Article, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; and upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or, in the discretion of the court, such person or persons, or the members of such partnership or association, or the officers and directors of such corporations, public or private, as the case may be, sentenced to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year, either or both, in the discretion of the court.

1933, ch. 526, sec. 14.

14. Upon application of the Commission, verified by oath or affirmation, the Circuit Court of any county, or of Baltimore City, sitting in equity, may, by injunction, enforce the compliance with, or restrain the violation of, any order or notice, or rule or regulation, of the Commission made pursuant to the provisions of this Article, or restrain the violation or attempted violation of any of the provisions of this Article. The Attorney General of Maryland shall be Counsel to the Water Resources Commission.

1933, ch. 526, sec. 15.

15. Nothing in this Article shall be construed so as to interfere with the exercise of the lawful jurisdiction of the Government of the United States, or its duly constituted agencies, over the waters of the State of Maryland. Nor shall this Article be construed to amend or repeal any law of the State of Maryland relating to the Public Service Commission, and the State Department of Health of Maryland, relating to water and water structures, or any act or parts of acts not inconsistent with the provisions of this Article; nor shall it be construed so as to impair any riparian or other vested right. Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed to amend, repeal, limit, impair or alter any right, power or privilege heretofore granted by the General Assembly of Maryland to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, to appropriate or use any of the rivers, streams or waters in the State of Maryland for the purpose of augmenting and improving the municipal water supply of Baltimore City; nor shall it be construed to prohibit, limit, impair or alter any particular use in existence on January 1, 1934, of any stream or body of water by any person, partnership, association, or corporation, public or private, unless such use is thereafter abandoned.

1933, ch. 526, sec. 16.

16. In the event that any court of competent jurisdiction should declare any section or part of a section of this Article to be invalid, the remainder of the Article shall not be invalidated thereby, but shall remain in full force and effect.

1933, ch. 526, sec. 17.

17. This Article is in addition to and not in substitution for any existing laws of the State of Maryland.
