

under authority of a license, or for the purpose of a second shipment of game from any such premises. Nothing contained herein requiring the tagging of game shall apply to any game released within this State, or hatched from eggs of game birds and released for stocking purpose, or sold to the Game Warden or representative for propagating purposes.

(d) Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this subtitle, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction before any Justice of the Peace of this State shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) and costs for each and every offense, and in addition to said fines shall be fined Five Dollars ($5.00) for each and every game bird, the eggs of same, or game animal sold or offered for sale in violation of the law; the license shall be revoked and game on said property confiscated by order of the Game Warden.

State Game Refuges and Hunting Grounds.

66. (Acquisition.) The Game Warden of this State may acquire title to or control of lands or waters within this State, suitable for protection and propagation of game and fish or for hunting purposes to be used as hereinafter provided, by purchase, lease, gift or otherwise, to be known as State Game Lands. The Game Warden may purchase or erect such buildings as may be deemed necessary properly to maintain and protect such lands or for propagation of game and fish, and may also purchase or lease lands from which the ownership of minerals, oil or gas and the right to mine and drill for the same have been excepted.

67. The State of Maryland hereby assents to the provisions of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide that the United States shall aid the States in wild life—restoration projects, and for other purposes," approved on September 2, 1937, (Public No. 415—75 Congress) and the Commission or Department charged with the administration and enforcement of this Article is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to perform such acts as may be necessary to the conduct and establishment of administrative cooperative wild life—restoration projects, as defined in said Act of Congress, in compliance with said Act and the rules and regulations promulgated by the Secretary of Agriculture thereunder; and no funds accruing to the State Game Protection Fund of the State of Maryland from license fees paid by hunters shall be diverted for any other purpose than for the administration, protection, restoration and propagation of game administered by the Commission or Department charged with the administration and enforcement of this Article.

68. (Title and Control.) The title to any land or water acquired by purchase, gift or otherwise, shall be taken in the name of the State of Maryland, for use of the Game Division of the Conservation Department of Maryland. The entire control of such land or water shall be under the direction of the Game Warden and Conservation Commission of this State.

No land or water shall be purchased at a price to exceed Five Dollars ($5.00) per acre, except where buildings or cultivated lands deemed neces-
