

furnish or sell articles of any description to a minor after having received written notice from any officer charged with the enforcement of this Article, or from the officer issuing the permit and badge required by section 30, that said minor is unlicensed to sell such articles, or who shall furnish or sell to any minor required to have a permit and badge as provided by section 30, any newspapers, magazines or periodicals with the knowledge that said minor intends to sell the same, shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars or by imprisonment for not more than ten days or by both such fine and imprisonment; and any sale of such articles at less than the current retail price thereof shall be prima facie evidence that the person so selling had knowledge that the minor to whom said sale was made intended to resell said articles.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 50. 1912, ch. 731, sec. 47. 1914, ch. 840, sec. 47. 1922, ch. 350, sec. 47.

50. No fee shall be charged or collected from any minor, or from his parents, guardian, legal custodian or next friend for any services rendered by the Commissioner of Labor and Statistics, or by any school, or other officer issuing a permit, or for any school certificate or physician's certificate issued under the provisions of this sub-title; but in the counties the physician or physicians designated by the superintendent of schools for each county shall be entitled to receive a fee of one dollar for each physician's certificate issued by him under the provisions of this Article, said sum to be paid by the Commissioner of Labor and Statistics on the warrant of the superintendent of schools of said county.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 51. 1912, sec. 48. 1912, ch. 731, sec. 48. 1914, ch. 840, sec. 48.
1916, ch. 222, sec. 48.

51. The Commissioner of Labor and Statistics is hereby authorized to appoint four inspectors at a compensation not exceeding one thousand dollars each per annum, and three officers whose duty it shall be to issue and supervise the issuance of employment certificates, and to act as inspectors, at a compensation not exceeding twelve hundred dollars each per annum, and one officer who shall act as inspector of street trades, at a salary not exceeding twelve hundred dollars per annum, to carry out the provisions of this Article; they shall also be allowed their actual expenses when away from the City of Baltimore on the business of their office; they shall be attached to and be part of the office of the Commissioner of Labor and Statistics, and be subject to the order of the Commissioner, whose duty it shall be to see that the provisions of this article are enforced; and said Commissioner is further empowered to designate one or more regular physicians and other attendants who shall be attached to and be part of the office of the Commissioner of Labor and Statistics, and be subject to the order of the Commissioner, and who shall have such duties and receive such compensation as shall be determined upon by said Commissioner provided, however, that the total compensation of all physicians and attendants so employed by said Commissioner shall not exceed twenty-five hundred dollars per annum.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 52. 1912, sec. 49. 1912, ch. 731, sec. 49.

52. All persons authorized to issue employment certificates under this sub-title are hereby authorized to take such affidavits or administer such oaths as may be called for in the issuance of certificates in this sub-title, and are hereby forbidden to charge or receive a fee therefor.