

any moneys appropriated therefor; in the latter event, such payments to be made on the order of the Executive Committee of the Maryland Council of Defense, by and with the sanction and approval of the Governor, the same to be directed to the Comptroller, who shall draw his warrant upon the Treasurer for the amount thereof as in law provided. In the event of such payment by the State, the said bond of such employer shall be in default, and shall be put in suit by the State. No person shall be required to work under this sub-title any greater number of hours per day than lawfully constitutes a day's work in the occupation in which such person is required to engage.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 62. 1912, sec. 60. 1917, ch. 33, sec. 5.

61. The Governor is authorized to appoint or employ such assistants as may be necessary, and to use such agencies as may be available and appropriate, to aid him in carrying out the provisions of this sub-title.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 63. 1912, sec. 61. 1917, ch. 33, sec. 5A.

62. The provisions of this sub-title shall not apply to persons temporarily unemployed by reasons of differences with their employers.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 64. 1912, sec. 62. 1917, ch. 33, sec. 5B.

63. Nothing in this sub-title shall apply to any person engaged or employed in any seasonal business, trade or occupation carried on in Baltimore City, or Allegany County.

Injunctions.

1935, ch. 574, sec. 65.

64. In the interpretation and application of this sub-title, the public policy of this State is declared to be as follows: Negotiations of terms and conditions of labor should result from voluntary agreement between employer and employees. Governmental authority has permitted and encouraged employers to organize in the corporate and other forms of capital control. In dealing with such employers the individual unorganized worker is helpless to exercise actual liberty of contract, and to protect his freedom of labor, and thereby to obtain acceptable terms and conditions of employment. Therefore it is necessary that the individual workman have full freedom of association, self organization, and designation of representatives of his own choosing, to negotiate the terms and conditions of his employment, and that he shall be free from interference, restraint or coercion of employers of labor, or their agents, in the designation of such representatives or in self-organization or in other concerted activities for the purpose of collective bargaining or other mutual aid or protection.

65. Every undertaking or promise hereafter made, whether written or oral, expressed or implied, between any employee or prospective employee and his employer, prospective employer or any other individual, firm, company, association, or corporation, whereby

(a) Either party thereto undertakes or promises to join—or to remain a member of some specific labor organization or organizations or to join
