established and proven they will respectively on demand refund the amounts received by each with interest thereon. If any such person is unable to furnish the security his share shall be converted into money, and under the direction of said Orphans' Court the proceeds thereof and his share in money, shall be safely invested under the direction of said Court; the accruing interest to be paid to the person entitled; the money to remain invested until the security given or the said Orphans' Court on application shall order it paid to the person entitled.

(e) Costs and all expenses of every nature and kind incident to these proceedings shall be paid out of said shares of stock and dividends aforesaid of the estate. Provided, however, that the procedure provided by this section is cumulative and not exclusive, and nothing in this section contained is to be taken or construed as limiting in any way the right of any party who claims to be entitled to a new certificate of stock in place of a lost or destroyed certificate which was issued in the manner hereinbefore indicated, to have his, her or its right to such new certificate determined and adjudicated, without regard to this section, by resort to and judgment of any court of law or equity which would have jurisdiction to determine and adjudicate such right in the event that this section had never been passed; and provided further, that the procedure herein provided for shall not be the exclusive remedy in any cases already instituted or suits now pending, growing out of the loss of a certificate of stock issued in the name of an agent or trustee.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 80. 1912, sec. 68. 1904, secs. 391 to 395, inclusive. 1888, secs. 277 to 281, inclusive. 1868, ch. 471, secs. 198 to 202, inclusive. 1886, ch. 287. 1908, ch. 240, sec. 43.

85. The interest which any defendant in a judgment or decree rendered by a court of law or equity, or in any proceeding by attachment, has on the books thereof in the capital stock of a corporation of this State, or of any national bank located therein, shall be liable to execution or attachment, and the proceedings thereon shall be as follows: the sheriff or other execution officer charged with the execution of the writ shall leave at the principal office of the corporation a notice in writing that he has seized the stock of the defendant (naming him and the purpose for which he has seized the same), and shall retain a copy of such notice and return it with the writ, the precise time of service being endorsed thereon. Upon receipt of such notice, the president or officer of the corporation to whom the same shall have been delivered, shall state in writing to the sheriff or other execution officer, the number of shares of stock standing in the name of the defendant at the time of such notice; and if the president or other corporate officer shall refuse or neglect for twenty-four hours to deliver such statement, the sheriff or other execution officer shall certify the fact to the court to which the writ is returnable, or to any judge thereof; and the said judge or court may order an attachment for contempt against such president or other corporate officer, and may compel him to answer under oath on oral examination, as to the number of shares of stock in the name of such defendant at the time of service of such notice, and may compel the production of the books of the corporation, and also fine the president or other officer for not giving the required statement. When the sheriff or other execution officer has ascertained the number of shares of stock standing in the name of the defendant he shall make a schedule thereof, or of so much thereof as will be amply sufficient to secure the debt