

owned, leased, controlled or operated, are managed, conducted and operated, not only with respect to the adequacy, security and accommodation afforded by their service, but also with respect to their compliance with all provisions of law, orders of the commission and charter requirements.

The commission and each commissioner shall have power to examine all books, contracts, records, documents and papers of any person or corporation subject to its supervision, and by subpoena duces tecum to compel the production thereof. In lieu of requiring production of originals by the subpoena duces tecum, the commission, or any commissioner, may require sworn copies of any such books, records, contracts, documents and papers or parts thereof to be filed with it.

The commission shall conduct a hearing and take testimony as to the advisability of any proposed change of law relating to any common carrier, railroad, street railroad, railroad corporation or street railroad corporation, or other corporation subject to the provisions of this sub-title if requested to do so by the legislature, by the senate, or general assembly, or the governor, and may conduct such a hearing, when requested to do so, by any person or corporation, and shall report its conclusions to the officer, body, person or corporation at whose request the hearing was held. The commission may also recommend the enactment of such legislation with respect to any further matter within its jurisdiction as it deems wise or necessary in the public interest, and may draft or cause to be drafted such bills or acts as it may deem necessary or proper to enact into law the legislation recommended by it.

379. The commission shall prescribe the form of the annual reports required under this sub-title to be made by common carriers, railroads, street railroads, railroad corporations and street railroad corporations, and all other corporations subject to the provisions of this sub-title, and may from time to time make such changes therein and additions thereto as it may deem proper; provided, however, that if any such changes or additions require any alteration in the method or form of keeping the accounts of such corporations, the commission shall give to them at least six months' notice before the expiration of any fiscal year of any such changes or additions, and on or before December 31st, in each year, shall furnish a blank form for such report. The contents of such report, and the form thereof, shall conform as nearly as possible to that required of common carriers under the provisions of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to Regulate Commerce," approved February fourth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, and the Act amendatory thereof approved June twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and six, and other amendments thereto, and such report shall be made for the period of twelve months ending December thirty-first in each year. The commission may require such report to contain information in relation to rates or regulations concerning fares or freights or agreements or contracts affecting the same, so far as such rates or regulations pertain to transportation within the State. When the report of any person or corporation is defective, or believed to be erroneous, the commission shall notify it to amend the same within a time prescribed by the commission. The originals of the reports, subscribed and sworn to as prescribed by law, shall be preserved in the office of the commission. The commission may also require common carriers to file periodically reports of
