

tained shall be intended to apply to any of the waters of said river, below a point called and known by the name of Porter's Bridge.

2. Any person deeming himself or herself aggrieved by any judgment of a justice of the peace under this act, shall be entitled to an appeal to the Circuit Court of the county, as in other cases of appeal from judgments of justices of the peace.

ARTICLE XLII.

Governor.

The Act of 1862, ch. 68, enacts as follows:

SEC. 1. In all cases of vacancies in office which now exist or may hereafter exist, for the filling of which no provision has been made by the Constitution or Laws of this State, the Governor is hereby empowered to fill the same.

The Act of 1862, ch. 225, amends and re-enacts section 5, as follows:

2. The Governor may appoint a private Secretary, who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the Governor, and shall receive an annual salary of eight hundred dollars; the Governor may also appoint a Messenger to the Executive, who shall be the keeper of the water closets attached to the State House, and shall keep the same cleaned, ventilated and supplied with water, and in every respect in thorough order, who shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Governor, and shall receive an annual salary of five hundred dollars.

The Act of 1862, ch. 15, repeals sections 11, 12, 13, 14, 16, of Article 55 and the Act of 1861, ch. 47, and enacts as follows:

3. The Governor shall annually appoint some competent person to keep the public buildings and grounds in order, and who shall keep clean and in proper order the hall or entrance to the State House, the Senate Chamber, the Hall of the House of Dele-
