ARTICLE XLIII.

Habeas Corpus.

The Act of 1862, ch. 36, repeals section 3 of this Article, and enacts as follows:

SEC. 1. If any person be committed or detained for any crime, or under any color or pretence whatsoever, he or any one on his behalf may complain by petition to any one of the courts or judges mentioned in the first section of this article, and the said court or judge shall forthwith grant a writ of habeas corpus, directed to the officer or other person in whose custody the party detained shall be, returnable immediately before the said court or judge granting the same; provided, the person detained be not commit-
