

license therefor, he shall be subject to a penalty of five hundred dollars for each offence, one half for the use of the State, and the other half to the informer.

HAWKERS AND PEDLERS.

The Act of 1862, ch. 97, repeals sections 21, 22, and substitutes the following:

6. For every such license, not to extend beyond the county in which the same may be issued, there shall be paid the following rates, to wit: for every license to travel on foot, the sum of forty dollars: to travel with a horse or other beast of burden and wagon or other vehicle, the sum of fifty dollars; with two horses or other beasts of burden and wagon or other vehicle, the sum of seventy dollars. For every such license to extend over the whole Eastern Shore or the whole Western Shore, there shall be paid the following rates, to wit: for every license to travel on foot, the sum of sixty dollars; to travel with a horse or other beast of burden, or one horse and other beast of burden and wagon or other vehicle, the sum of one hundred dollars; with two horses or other beasts of burden and wagon or other vehicle, the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars.

TRADERS.

The Act of 1862, ch. 49, repeals section 42, and enacts the following substitute:

8. When any person, body politic, or corporate, shall propose to sell or barter anything mentioned in the preceding section, except spirituous or fermented liquors, he shall apply to the clerk of the Circuit Court of the county in which he may reside, or if he resides in the city of Baltimore to the Court of Common Pleas, for a license therefor; but no license to trade, or to sell spirituous or fermented liquors, shall be issued by any clerk of a court to a feme covert or to a person under the age of twenty-one years, without the special order of the judge of the court;
