

removal is not intended for delay, any causes now or hereafter pending in equity in the Superior Court of Baltimore city, and in the Circuit Court for Baltimore city respectively, before or after decree, may by the respective courts aforesaid, be ordered to be removed and transferred from the one to the other of said courts; and all the papers and proceeding, shall be transmitted accordingly; and the cases be thereafter proceeded with as if originated in the courts respectively, to which the removal shall take place; provided, however, that no further removal of such causes shall hereby be authorized.

PROCESS.

The Act of June 20, 1861, ch. 69, adds the following:

5. In all cases of civil process at law or in equity, or of any civil writ whatsoever, hereafter to be issued out of any court, or by any judge of this State, and directed to or against, or lawfully to be served upon any person whatsoever, wherein the service of such writ or process upon such person then being within the local jurisdiction of such court or judge, shall be prevented or resisted by threats, violence, intimidation or superior force on the part or behalf of such person; or the said person so liable to be served with such writ or process shall be within any fortress, or fortified place or building, or at any military post within said jurisdiction, and entrance thereto, or access therein to such person, shall be by order or on the behalf of such person refused, obstructed or prevented, so that the officer charged with the service of such writ or process shall be unable to serve the same, or cannot do without force, or personal risk, the said officer shall leave a copy of such writ or process, if practicable or permitted, with such person or persons, as shall present themselves, where such writ or process is sought to be served, and where or whereabouts the person on whom the same is sought to be served shall be; or shall set up such copy upon the fortress, building or premises aforesaid, or as near thereto, as may be practicable; and shall make return of the facts accordingly; which return shall to all legal intents, purposes and effect be equivalent to a return of actual personal service of such writ or process, upon the party named therein.