

ARTICLE XCIII.

Testamentary Law.

DEBTS.

The Act of June 21, 1861, ch. 44, amends this Article by adding the following section :

SEC. 1. The words "actions for anything done to the person" used in the one hundred and fifth section of said article, shall not be held to embrace actions for illegal arrest, false imprisonment, or violation of the twenty-first, twenty-third, twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth articles of the Declaration of Rights or any of them, or of the existing or any future provisions of the code, touching the writ of habeas corpus or proceedings thereunder ; for all of which enumerated wrongs, actions may be maintained by and against executors, as they may be or might have been by and against the party or parties deceased.

The Act of 1862, ch. 142, amends and re-enacts section 114, as follows :

2. The Register of Wills shall enter in a suitable book, to be provided by him for that purpose, all claims against a decedent, in regular order, as they are passed by the Orphans' Court or Register of Wills, giving the date of the passage, the name of the creditor, the character of such claim, whether open account, note, bond, bill obligatory, judgment, or other evidence of debt, and the amount thereof ; if an open account, the interest due thereon up to the date of the passage, shall be stated separately ; if a note, bond, bill obligatory, judgment, or other evidence of debt, the date thereof, and the date from which interest begins to run, shall also be stated, and other particulars of such claims ; and the entry of a claim upon such book shall be taken as notice to the administrator of its existence ; and the Register of Wills be entitled to receive, for making such entry of each claim, the sum of ten cents, to be paid by the claimant.
