ANNAPOLIS.

The Act of 1862, ch. 44, adds the following sections to this Article.

SEC. 1. No horses, cattle, sheep, or hogs, shall be permitted to go at large within two miles of the outer boundaries of the city of Annapolis, on the west side thereof.

2. Any person may impound any horses, cattle, sheep or hogs going at large as aforesaid, and the owners thereof shall, on reclaiming the same, pay at the rate of one dollar for every horse or every animal coming under the denomination of cattle, and fifty cents for every hog or sheep, and the expenses of keeping the same to the person so impounding them.
