

shall compose the tenth collection district, the twelfth election district shall compose the eleventh collection district.

3. The county commissioners of Baltimore county, are hereby authorized and required to appoint eleven collectors upon the first Tuesday of March of each and every year, who shall hold their office for one year for the collection of State and county taxes, one for each of the collection districts, as composed in the preceding section, and said collectors shall give a bond to the State of Maryland, in the full sum of State taxes placed in their hands respectively for collection, and also a bond to the State of Maryland for the use of the county commissioners in the full sum of county taxes placed in their hands respectively for collection, said bonds to be approved by the county commissioners of said county, and to be given within ten days from the date of appointment, and upon failure to do so, the county commissioners to appoint a successor.

4. The commission as compensation to said collectors for the collection of said taxes, shall be as follows: six per centum for the first, second, seventh, tenth and eleventh collection districts; five per centum for the third, fourth, eighth and ninth collection districts; seven per centum for the fifth and sixth collection districts, upon all sums collected and paid over, and it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to levy for the said commission in the general levy of State and county taxes; said commissions to be estimated upon the whole amount to be placed in the hands of each collector.

ELECTIONS.

The Act of 1862, ch. 51, adds the following:

5. The place for holding elections in the fifth district in Baltimore county, shall be at the house where Daniel Wilhelm now resides, on the Falls Road, in said district.