

the city of Baltimore, or in and for Baltimore county, according to the respective jurisdiction under which any of the offences herein set forth may be committed; one half to the informer, and the other half to the mayor and city council of Baltimore.

66. This act shall not be construed to exempt any person or persons who may have been fined for a violation thereof, or who may be charged with a violation thereof, from an action of damages for any injury or destruction of any part of the works used in supplying the city of Baltimore with water, in any suit for damages on account of said injury, brought by the mayor and city council of Baltimore.

WOOD.

The Act of 1862, ch. 173, repeals sections 947, 949, and substitutes the following:

67. The clerk of the court of Common Pleas may issue licenses to retail and huckster wood, on any of the wharves in the city of Baltimore, upon the payment of one hundred dollars, for the use of the State.

68. No person shall retail or huckster wood on any wharf in the city of Baltimore, under a common trader's license, or without having first obtained a license for said purpose, as provided in the preceding section of this bill; and any person so offending shall be fined one hundred dollars, one half for the use of the State, and the other half for the use of the person who shall prosecute for the same.
