

by reason of its lying contiguous to uninclosed or waste lands, or for any other reason, they shall so report in their award, and no one shall be required to make or repair more than one-half of such fence as shall be to him necessary.

7. If any person, having an interest in any joint division fence, shall fail to make or keep in repair his part thereof, he shall not be entitled to damages on account of any trespass through said part, by stock belonging to the other joint owner of the fence, and if he shall kill, maim or otherwise injure such stock he shall, upon conviction, pay to the owner thereof the full value of such stock, with costs of suit.

8. In all other cases of trespass by stock, the party trespassed upon shall be entitled to recover from the owner of the stock trespassing, the amount of damage done by such trespass, as other debts are now recovered, but if the party trespassed upon shall kill, maim or otherwise wilfully injure the stock trespassing, he shall forfeit his right to recover, but in case of prosecution for such killing or maiming, he shall be entitled to prove the amount of damage done by such stock, in mitigation of damages for the killing or maiming.
