RISING SUN.

The Act of 1862, ch. 151, professes to repeal sections 165 to 174, and substitutes the following:

4. The citizens of the village of Rising Sun, Cecil county, Maryland, are a body politic by the name of "Commissioners of Rising Sun," with all the privileges of a body corporate, and as such shall have succession, and by their corporate name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, grant, receive and do all other acts as natural persons, and may purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property, or dispose of the same for the benefit of said village, and have and use a common seal which they may change at pleasure.

5. The free male white citizens of said village of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, being citizens of the United States, who shall have resided in said village for and during the space of six months preceding, may on the second Monday in May, in each and every year, at the usual place of holding elections in said village, be authorized to elect five commissioners for said village, who shall have resided within the corporate limits of the same one year next preceding the election.

6. The said commissioners shall annually appoint some person to act as judge of said election, who shall open the polls at three o'clock, P. M., and close the same at six o'clock, P. M., and the persons who shall have the majority of votes shall be declared elected commissioners for the ensuing year.
