

exhibition of any stud-horse through the streets; and may impose fines not exceeding ten dollars for any offence, on any person violating said ordinances.

15. They may provide by ordinance for the immediate arrest, without warrant, of any person violating any town ordinance, by driving through the streets, when in the judgment of the president or any two of said commissioners, the delay necessary to the issuing of a warrant would be dangerous to the peace and quiet of the village, or the lives, limbs and property of its citizens, and when it shall appear that the offender is intoxicated, shall take charge of the horse and vehicle and deposit them in some place of safety until the offender shall be sober.

16. They shall have power to establish the limits and width of the streets of said village, and to remove obstructions therefrom, and may with the consent of two-thirds of the owners of the property through which they may pass, open new streets, lanes and alleys.

17. They shall have power to provide for the payment of the damages and expenses of opening, widening, laying out, and grading of streets, lanes, and alleys in said village, by levying and assessing the same generally upon the whole of the assessable property of said town, or specially upon the assessable property of persons benefitted thereby.

18. If on the opening or laying out any new street, lane, or alley, the said commissioners cannot agree with the owner of any land or property wanted for the purposes, for the purchase, use or occupation of the same, application may be made to any justice of the peace for said county, who shall thereupon issue his warrant under his hand and seal, directed to the sheriff of said county, requiring him to summon a jury of twenty inhabitants of said county, not related to the parties, or in anywise interested, to meet on the land or near to the property to be valued, on a day to be named in the warrant, not less than ten nor more than twenty days after issuing of the warrant.
