

by him, appraised by two disinterested and intelligent men, tax payers of the county, who shall return their appraisal of said damages to the county commissioners, with their affidavit thereto annexed, that they believe said sheep were killed by a dog or dogs, that their appraisal of the damages is fair and reasonable, and that they have no interest therein, and said appraisers shall each be allowed the sum of fifty cents for their services, which sum together with the legal fee of the justice of the peace for the affidavits provided for in this and the following sections, shall be paid by the owner of the sheep, and may be returned with the appraisal as costs.

33. All appraisements for damages to sheep, shall be filed in the office of the county commissioners, and shall be paid according to priority of date; provided, that no appraisal shall be paid, unless filed within three months of the date when the sheep were killed or injured, nor unless the owner of said sheep, shall make affidavit, to be filed with the appraisal, that said sheep were killed or injured by a dog or dogs not owned or harbored by him, and that he has no means of recovering the value thereof from the owner or owners of the dog or dogs that killed or injured them.

34. If any owner or keeper of an assessed dog shall be unable or unwilling to pay the tax thereon, and the collector can find no property out of which to make the tax, the collector shall forthwith proceed to kill said dog or dogs, and shall be allowed for each and every dog he shall kill, the sum of twenty-five cents, to be paid out of the fund arising from the tax on dogs.