

said town, elect a person, residing in said town or within three miles thereof, and possessed of landed property in the town, in his own right or in right of his wife, a commissioner in the place of the commissioner whose term of office has expired.

ELECTIONS—JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES.

The Act of August 7, 1861, ch. 99, repeals sections 91, 124, and substitutes the following:

3. Dorchester county is divided into thirteen election districts according to their present bounds and limits, in each of which election districts all elections for public officers shall be held at the places now established by law.

4. There shall be the following number of justices of the peace and constables for Dorchester county, to wit: for election district number one, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number two, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number three, four justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number four, three justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number five, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number six, two justices of the peace and one constable; election district number seven, is hereby divided into two election districts, viz: seven or Cambridge district and thirteen or Bucktown district, and is contained in the following bounds and limits: beginning at the mouth of Black Water River and running up said river until it comes to the fork of the same; then with the east branch up to Maple Dam bridge, then with the county road southerly until it intersects David M. Corkran's road, then with said road to Martin's road, then by and with Martin's road until it intersects the county road leading from Bucktown to Cambridge, at or near Levin Mowbray's gate, then with said road leading from Bucktown to Cambridge north until it intersects the Cordtown road, then with the Cordtown road until it intersects the road leading from Vienna to Cambridge, then with said road to the corner of Doctor Curt's oat-field and intersecting a road leading from the Cambridge and Vienna road to Arries, then by and with said road to Trans-