

quaking bridge, then with the Transquaking River to its mouth; the election for said thirteenth or Bucktown district shall be held in the village of Bucktown at such place as the judges of election may determine; for election district number seven, three justices of the peace and three constables, one of which constables shall always be elected from that portion of said district known as Town Point; for election district number eight, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number nine, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number ten, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number eleven, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number twelve, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number thirteen, two justices of the peace and one constable.

The Act of 1862, ch. 168, adds the following:

5. The second section of the act passed at January session, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, chapter two hundred and thirty-five, entitled, An act to lay off and establish a new election district in Dorchester county, to be called election district number twelve, or Williamsburg district, is hereby repealed and the following section enacted as a substitute therefor:

6. The boundaries of said election district shall be as follows: beginning at the bridge on the main branch of the Nanticoke River, at Federalsburg, thence with the county road that separates Dorchester from Caroline county, to Hunting Creek, thence with said creek to Choptank River, thence with said river to Blink Horn Creek, thence with said creek to its head or until it intersects the county road leading from Cabin Creek to Hunting Creek, thence with the Manor line to Washington Chapel, thence with the aforesaid line and road that divides the lands of Nathan Williams from Thomas A. Trice, Nichols Wright from Stephen Andrews and James M. Hurlock, thence following the plain road leading to Henry D. Wright's mill and branch, thence with said branch to the main branch of the Nanticoke River, thence with said river to the mouth of Miles branch, thence with said branch