

two, called Frederick district of said county, by dividing the said district by a line beginning at a point on the Monococy river, where Carroll's Creek empties into the same, and running by and with the centre of the road leading thence to Frederick city, to the point of intersection of said road by the continuation of a straight line drawn through the centre of Second street, in Frederick city, thence westwardly, by and with said straight line to and through Second street, and by and with the centre of Second street to Bentz street, thence by a continuation of said line to the middle of the turnpike road leading from Frederick to Hagerstown, thence with the middle of said turnpike road to the top of the Catoclin Mountain, being the western boundary of said district number two.

4. All that portion of Frederick election district, number two, lying south and east of said line shall be known as precinct number one, and all that portion lying north and west of said line shall be known as precinct number two, and all the voters in each of said precincts shall vote at the court-house in Frederick city, and the said county commissioners shall cause two polls to be opened at the said court-house for that purpose, and shall also appoint three judges of election for each of said precincts to receive, count, and return the ballots that may be cast at any election hereafter to be held.

5. The county commissioners of Frederick county shall, on or before the first Monday in June next, cause a survey to be made in accordance with the lines designated in the first section of this act, and have stones with suitable inscriptions thereon prepared, and plant one at the point where the line leaves the road to intersect Second street, and another at the point where the line strikes the turnpike leading from Frederick to Hagerstown.

6. The sheriff of Frederick county shall give notice of the place of holding the election in the two precincts of said election district number two, and of the division of said district as aforesaid, by causing the same to be inserted in one or more of the newspapers printed in Frederick city, once a week, for four weeks, prior to the next general election to be held after the passage of this act.
