

The Act of 1862, ch. 149, adds the following :

7. All elections hereafter to be held in the tenth election district of Frederick county shall be held in the primary school-house of school district number two in said county, generally known by the name of Smithfield school-house.

EMMITTSBURG.

The Act of 1862, ch. 207, adds the following :

8. In addition to the taxes for their current and necessary expenses, the burgess and commissioners of Emmittsburg are hereby empowered to levy and collect, in addition to the tax now authorized by law, a corporation tax not exceeding eighty cents on every hundred dollars of assessable property within said corporation, and apply the money arising from said additional tax solely to making an artificial road of stone or sand on the Main street, and so much of the street intersecting it as extends from the public square to St. Vincent's Hall in said corporation.

9. Said burgess and commissioners may in their discretion collect the said additional taxes in two annual payments, of not more than forty cents for each year on every hundred dollars of assessable property.

10. On the expiration of the power granted by this act, the said burgess and commissioners shall levy no taxes except in accordance with section sixty-three of article eleven of the Public Local Laws.

FISH.

The Act of 1862, ch. 241, adds the following :

11. Any person or persons throwing, putting, or placing lime or any other poisonous substances, into any of the creeks, streams of water, or any of their tributaries, in Frederick county, for the purpose of catching, taking, or destroying fish in any of the said creeks, streams of water, and their tributaries in said county, shall for every such offence, upon conviction thereof before a
