

shall appropriate out of the school funds of the district, a sum not exceeding thirty dollars a year, for the purchase of books and stationery, under the direction of said inspectors.

The Act of 1862, ch. 160, adds the following, between sections 73 and 74:

3. That it shall be the duty of the trustees of each primary school in Howard county, to have a public examination of the scholars of such school at the school house, at least once in every year, which examination shall be attended by the said trustees, and the progress of said scholars as evinced by said examination, shall be reported to the inspectors of primary schools, to aid such inspectors in forming an opinion of the qualifications of the teachers of said schools, and the trustees shall report the fact that said examination has been held, to the commissioners of said county, as preliminary to drawing any money for the said school.

SHERIFF.

The Act of 1862, ch. 264, adds the following, relating to the duties and pay of Sheriff:

4. He shall be allowed a fee of one dollar for every committal of a prisoner to the jail of the county in addition to the amounts allowed him under the preceding section.

5. He shall be allowed fifty cents for every warrant delivered by him to the judges of election for the county.

6. It shall be his duty to attend in person, or by deputy, the Circuit Court, whether sitting in law or equity, and the Orphans' Court, whenever the said courts, or either of them shall be in session, and for every day's attendance at each of said courts he shall be allowed the sum of two dollars; but the said sheriff, or his deputy shall perform the duties of bailiff in the Orphans' Court when required by the court.
