

of Frederick county shall be and he is authorized to employ a watchman to guard said jail, if in his judgment such a guard is deemed necessary, and the salary for such guard shall be levied, collected, and paid to said sheriff by the county commissioners of Frederick and Montgomery counties respectively in proportion to the number of prisoners confined therein by each during the year; provided that the salary of said watchman shall not exceed one dollar per night, and that the employment of such watchman shall cease on the completion and occupancy of the jail in Montgomery county.

5. The county commissioners for Montgomery county shall levy, collect, and pay to the sheriff of Frederick county twenty-five cents per day for each prisoner committed to the jail of Frederick county under the provisions of this act, and such other fees as are allowed by laws in such cases to said sheriff.

LOANS AND TAXES.

The Act of 1862, ch. 1, adds the following:

6. The commissioners of Montgomery county are hereby authorized and empowered to borrow, upon the credit of the county, a sum of money not exceeding five thousand dollars, for the purpose of building a jail.

7. The said commissioners are hereby authorized to levy upon said county a tax on the assessable property of said county, to reimburse the said loan, not more than one thousand dollars and interest, to be raised in any one year, until the said loan is paid off.

8. The said commissioners are hereby authorized to adopt such plans and make such contracts, and do all other acts necessary in the erection and completion of the said jail, with as little delay as practicable.
