

ARTICLE XCIII.

Testamentary Law.

WILLS.

Chapter 157 adds the following as section 329:

SEC. 1. Every Register of Wills in this State shall receive, for safe keeping, the will of any living person who resides in the city or county for which such register is appointed, every such will being first sealed up and endorsed with the name of the testator, its date, and the date of its delivery to the register, and the name of the executor or other person to whom it may be delivered at the death of the testator; and such register shall receive for each will so deposited fifty cents, and shall immediately index it in an index to be kept for that purpose, and there keep it in his office in a depository to be kept for that purpose, until the death of the testator, unless delivered to such testator or to his order, in his lifetime, upon a receipt therefor being given on said index.

In force from February 19, 1864.

ARTICLE

Theatrical Exhibitions.

Chapter 399 adds the following as an article in the Public General Laws, under the above title.

SEC. 1. It shall not be lawful for any proprietor, lessee, or manager of any theatre, museum, or other place of amusement, to employ women or girls as waiters, or to permit them to act in such theatre, or place of amusement, or among the audience or frequenters of such theatre, or place of amusement, as waiters or for the purpose, or under the pretence of selling, serving, receiving orders or pay for spirituous or malt liquors, wines, lager beer, or any other refreshments or merchandize.