

by the clerk of the said Circuit Court in his office, and preserved as other records and papers are now preserved in said office.

27. The clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore county, shall cause all the papers ordered to be recorded or filed, or records to be recorded anew, to be so recorded, indexed and filed; and shall cause to be made such indexes as may be ordered, and shall supply for that object the necessary books, material and labor, and for the expense of such labor, the said clerk shall receive seven cents for each hundred words or figures recorded, and pro rata, and for indexing, the same compensation which is now allowed by law for similar service, and for re-filing anew causes of action, trial and other papers, or recopying dockets or docket entries, such sum, as the commissioner appointed by this act, shall deem right and proper, and such payments shall be made to said clerk, by the County Commissioners of Baltimore county, monthly, upon the certificate of the commissioner appointed by this act, setting forth that he has examined the recording and other work ordered by him, and that the same has been properly done, and that the amount charged is in conformity to the allowance prescribed by the provisions of this act, and for the outlay for books, stationery, and for binding books, the said clerk shall present his account accompanied with vouchers and verified by his affidavit to the said County Commissioners, and upon such presentation, they shall pay him such amount as he has actually expended.

28. If any excess of fees should accrue in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore county during the time of carrying into effect and executing the provisions of this act, the said clerk is hereby authorized and directed to credit the work required to be done by the preceding section with such excess of fees; and such excess of fees, if any should accrue, are hereby appropriated to that object, and the Comptroller of the State is hereby directed to settle the amounts and credits of the said clerk accordingly; and provided, if any excess of fees should accrue, the said clerk shall receive six cents, instead of seven cents, for each hundred words or figures recorded, and