

33. Any person or persons interested in any lands in the county aforesaid, and the original deed or deeds thereof, and the record thereof, have both been burnt or destroyed, upon application to the clerk of the Court of Appeals for an extract or extracts of the said deed or deeds, so as aforesaid destroyed, the clerk is hereby requested to furnish to the party or parties so applying for such extract or extracts a copy or copies of the same, under the seal of his office, at the cost and expense of the person or persons so applying for the same, as aforesaid, and the said person or persons may have the same extract or extracts recorded amongst the land records of the said county, and the clerk of the Circuit Court for the said county, upon application, is hereby required to have the extract or extracts, aforesaid, recorded in the record books aforesaid, and that the same be alphabeted in the same manner that the deeds and other instruments of writing are alphabeted, which said enrollment shall be made at the expense and costs of the party or parties requiring the same.

34. Whenever any record cannot be made up, when the party or parties fail to make application to the Court of Appeals, (as per section 20,) [sec. 33,] for an extract or extracts, the commissioner is directed to obtain the necessary extract or extracts to complete the records, and the clerk of the Court of Appeals, or the clerk of any other court, is hereby directed to furnish to the commissioner so much of the extract or extracts as the said commissioner may require, under the seal of his office, in a book provided for the purpose, which seal shall cover and be valid for all the extracts up to the date of the seal, and the clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore county shall have the same extract or extracts recorded amongst the land records of said county, at the expense and cost of the county.

35. The deed or deeds, or other instruments of writing, and the extracts aforesaid, when so as aforesaid enrolled, shall have the same effect and operation in law, to all intents and purposes, as if the records aforesaid, in which the said deed or deeds, or or other instruments of writing, were heretofore enrolled, had never been destroyed.
