

36. Any person or persons having possession of any bill of sale, mortgage, or other instrument of writing, relating to personal property, that appears to have been heretofore recorded in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for the said county, and the record thereof has been destroyed, may have the same enrolled again, and the clerk of the said court is hereby required to record the same, together with the endorsement thereon, of the former enrollment, in the record book aforesaid, at the cost and expense of the party or parties requiring the same; and the same when so recorded, shall have the same effect and operation in law, to all intents and purposes, as if the records aforesaid, in which the said papers were heretofore recorded, had never been destroyed.

37. The funds unappropriated in the hands of the County Commissioners for Baltimore county, levied upon the county by the act passed March, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, to provide for the restoration of burnt records, shall be applied to carry out the provisions of this act.

38. It shall be the duty of the commissioner, after proper notice having been given, to travel, if necessary, over the county or State, at his own expense, to collect papers to complete the said record.

Passed February 3, 1864, and takes effect from March 1, 1864.

ROADS.

Chapter 97 repeals Section 151, and substitutes the following.

39. The County Commissioners are required to levy such sum of money as may be necessary to pay laborers on the public roads in said county, such rate of wages as they may deem proper, and shall take a sufficient bond from each district road supervisor, conditionally, for the payment of laborers who may work upon said roads.

In force from February 11, 1864.
