

25. They shall severally account for, under oath, and pay over to the treasurer quarterly, all moneys received by them as inspectors, after retaining for their services two-thirds of all moneys received under the four hundred and thirteenth section, and one-fifth of all moneys received under the four hundred and twentieth section of this Article, and the inspector at the Western scales, shall be allowed a sum not exceeding three hundred dollars annually, for an assistant to carry out the additional duties required of him by this act, on proof that such sum has been properly expended by him.

In force from March 8, 1864.

LIVE STOCK.

Chapter 328 amends and re-enacts Sections 464, 467, 469, 470, and adds sections, as follows.

26. He shall within the first five days of every quarter, upon his oath, taken before a justice of the peace of said city, make a full statement of all receipts for weighing, and from whom received, and of all disbursements by him made to the Comptroller, and shall pay over to said Comptroller, all balances that may be in his hands.

27. He may from time to time, as experience may suggest, and as the public accommodation and convenience may seem to require, make changes and alterations in the arrangement of the pens, yards, alleys and appurtenances thereof, and may if he shall deem it necessary for the public accommodation erect additional cattle scales; and may make such reasonable rules and regulations to be observed by the owners or other persons presenting live stock to be weighed, in the use of said pens, yards, alleys, scales or appurtenances, as to him may seem expedient; provided, nevertheless, that no rules or regulations shall be made or be valid, which shall give any preference or priority to any owner or other person in the use of said pens, yards, alleys, scales or appurtenances, or in the order of weighing the stock, over any other owner or person whose stock shall previously have been brought in to be weighed, and shall have