

by the inspector appointed to said warehouse, who shall be responsible therefor, and who shall upon demand give his receipt therefor to the person delivering the same; and if he refuses to take charge of any such tobacco, or to give his receipt therefor when required, he shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars, to be recovered in any court of law in this State, without prejudice to the right of action upon his official bond, as hereinbefore provided; provided, that no inspector shall be required to take charge of such tobacco, if his warehouse be filled so that he has no room for the same, and there be room in any other of the warehouses.

44. It shall be the duty of each tobacco inspector to cause each hogshead of tobacco landed or delivered at the warehouse to which he is appointed, to be numbered in succession as received, and to cause said number to be entered in a book kept for that purpose, together with the time said hogshead was received, the name of the vessel or other conveyance, if known to him by which said hogshead was brought to the city of Baltimore, and of the owner or consignee of said tobacco, and the initials or other marks on said hogshead, identifying the same; and when said hogshead shall be removed from said warehouse, he shall cause an entry to be made in some book kept for that purpose, of the time when the same was so removed, the name of the person to whom the same was delivered, and of the vessel or other conveyance by which the same was taken away.

45. All tobacco delivered at any warehouse in such condition as to require cooperage, shall be properly taken care of by the inspector, who shall cause it to be coopered; and the owner thereof or his agent charged for the same, not less than twenty-five and not more than seventy-five cents for each hogshead so coopered.

46. It shall be the duty of each tobacco inspector to cause all the tobacco in the warehouse to which he may have been appointed, to be inspected as speedily as practicable in regular order as numbered, without favor, affection or partiality to any one; and each violation of the provisions of this section, shall
