

subject the offender to a penalty of one hundred dollars, to be recovered in the Criminal Court of Baltimore city.

47. It shall be the duty of each inspector to cause each hogshead of tobacco before it is uncased to be weighed, and the tobacco in each hogshead, and the cask itself, to be separately weighed in his presence, or that of his weighing clerk, in scales with weights of the proper standard, and the weight of each hogshead as first weighed, and the gross and net weight of the tobacco therein contained after inspection, to be entered in a proper book, with sufficient reference to its numbers and marks as previously recorded.

48. It shall be the duty of each inspector to cause to be marked with a marking-iron on the side of each hogshead of tobacco under his charge, the warehouse number and weight of said hogshead, and the net weight of tobacco contained therein, and to cause the warehouse number of such hogshead to be marked with blacking on each head thereof.

49. It shall be the duty of each inspector to cause all tobacco under his charge to be uncased and broken, and himself, or some competent person appointed by him to draw samples thereof, and cause the same to be tied, fastened, labeled and marked, as hereinafter provided.

50. Each hogshead of tobacco raised in Maryland or Ohio, shall be broken in five different places, the first break to be not more than nine inches from the floor, and one bundle shall be taken from each break of the average quality thereof, and the five bundles so taken, shall be so drawn as to constitute a fair and just sample of the quality and condition of the tobacco in said hogshead.

51. Each hogshead of tobacco which may have been raised in any other State than Maryland or Ohio, shall be broken in three different places, and five bundles shall be taken from each break of the average quality thereof, and the fifteen bundles so taken,
