

4. The said commissioners shall meet at such times, as they shall deem expedient, and may appoint a clerk to register their proceedings, and they shall at the first meeting after an election, choose from their own body a president, who shall preside at all meetings of the commissioners, vote on all questions before them, and remain in office until superseded by the appointment of a new president, after a new election of commissioners.

5. They may also appoint a bailiff of said town, who shall, within the limits of said town and common, have all the powers and perform all the duties of constables of Cecil county, which bailiff may be allowed such compensation as they may think proper, and all ordinances passed by said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall be entered by their clerk in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall be opened at all times for the inspection of any person interested, and copies of all ordinances shall be put up at three of the most public places of said town, that the same may generally be made known.

6. All public property belonging to said town shall be vested in said commissioners, who shall use the same for the benefit of said town, and may impose fines not exceeding ten dollars for the violation of the by-laws, which fines shall be collected in the name of said commissioners as other debts.

Passed March 10, 1864.

NORTH-EAST.

Chapter 348 enacts as follows .

7. The qualified voters residing in the borough of North-East, in Cecil county, shall have the privilege of deciding by ballot, at an election called by the commissioners of said borough, for the purpose, on some day in April, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, and on some day in the same month, in each subsequent year, whether any license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind, or description whatsoever, shall be granted or issued by the clerk of the Circuit Court of Cecil county, to any person to vend or sell the same within the limits of said borough.
