

3. If there be no collector of State taxes appointed and qualified in Prince George's county by the first day of August in any year, the Governor shall appoint from any part of the State a collector for said county, who shall give bond with a surety or sureties, to be approved by the Governor or the judge of the Circuit Court for Prince George's county, and to be recorded and be in all respects on a footing with other collectors' bonds; and a copy thereof certified by the clerk of the said county, in whose office the same is recorded, shall by the said clerk be forthwith transmitted to the Comptroller, and the said collector shall have all the powers of other collectors.

In force from March 10, 1864.

WITNESSES.

Chapter 148 adds the following Section :

4. Whenever the State's Attorney, or other person, lawfully, representing the State in any civil or criminal proceeding, in the Circuit Court for said county, shall deem it necessary, to have the testimony of any person residing in the District of Columbia, or elsewhere, out of the reach of process of said court; and such person shall voluntarily attend any term of said court, for the purpose of testifying for the State in such proceeding; it shall be lawful for the judge of said court to allow said witness so attending, such sum as may be reasonable compensation for the loss which he may sustain by such attendance, not to exceed ten dollars per diem; and certificates for the allowance so made shall be issued by the Clerk of said county, and levied by the County Commissioners of said county as in the case of all other allowances to witnesses.

In force from February 18, 1864.
