

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Chapter 255 repeals Section 75, and 1862, c. 33, and re-enacts the same as follows,
(I. Supplement, 95.)

2. The clerk to the commissioners of Queen Anne's county, shall receive annually as a compensation for his services such sum as the commissioners may deem proper, not exceeding three hundred dollars; the said clerk is authorized and is hereby empowered to administer an oath or affirmation to any account not before probated to any person presenting a claim to the commissioners against the county; but nothing in this section shall be construed to empower the clerk to administer the oath or affirmation in any other place than in his office; he shall be allowed the usual fee of a justice of the peace for the same service.

In force from March 10, 1864.

Chapter 253 adds the following to follow Section 75 :

3. The county commissioners of Queen Anne's county may levy on the assessable property of Queen Anne's county, for the use of the commissioners of the town of Centreville, annually, such sum of money as in their judgment may be just and equitable, to assist the said town commissioners to keep the roads and streets in said town in proper repair and order; the same to be paid to the proper officer of the town commissioners, who are hereby invested with the control thereof.

In force from March 10, 1864.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES.

Chapter 194 amends and re-enacts Section 92, as follows :

4. There shall be the following number of justices of the peace and constables for said county, to wit: For election district number one, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number two, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number three, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number four, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election