

HAGERSTOWN.

Chapter 146 repeals Section 124, and enacts the following in lieu thereof.

5. The mayor and council may direct and provide for leveling and paving the streets, alleys, footways and lanes in said town, or any of them; may grade the same and direct repairs upon them when they think proper; may cause bridges or culverts to be made over the waters or hollows; may contract with the citizens of the town for paving the streets, alleys and lanes in such manner as they may by ordinance direct; may erect lamps in any of the streets of said town; cause the same to be lighted at the expense of the town; may levy upon the taxable property in said town an amount sufficient to defray the expenses attending the same, which taxes may be collected as other taxes are provided for in section one hundred and thirty-six of this Article.

In force from February 24, 1864.

Chapter 313 amends and re-enacts Section 143, as follows:

6. All fines, penalties and forfeitures under the ordinances of the corporation shall be recovered before the mayor, as small debts are recoverable before any justice of the peace, or the mayor may, at his discretion, commit offenders against said ordinances to the jail of Washington county for a period not exceeding thirty days; and the sheriff of said county shall receive and safe keep all such offenders in the manner and under the same regulations as persons committed for a violation of the laws of this State.

In force from March 7, 1864.

ORPHANS' COURT.

Chapter 355 amends and re-enacts Section 227, as follows:

7. The per diem of each judge of the Orphans' Court for said county shall be three dollars for each day's service.

In force from March 8, 1864.
