

county or State by death or other causes of disqualification, there shall be designated or appointed by the Governor annually, one officer of registration in like manner as hereinbefore mentioned, who shall be qualified in like manner, and have and exercise all the powers herein conferred on the three original officers of registration, so far as shall be necessary for the correction of the list of voters and the books of registration rendered necessary by the provisions of sections three, four and five of the first article of the Constitution, and the action of the General Assembly.

27. The said officer of registration shall sit for the correction of the said list of voters and the register of names, in the manner prescribed in section eight of this act, [Sec. 20,] and for this purpose it shall be the duty of the clerk of the Circuit Court at such time to hand over the said list and books to the said officer of registration, who shall proceed in the manner hereinbefore mentioned to correct said list and book of registration, so that the names of all persons legally entitled to vote shall appear thereon, and the names of those disqualified shall appear on the book of registration with the cause of disqualification, in like manner as in the original registration, and when he shall have completed his work, he shall dispose of said lists and book as hereinbefore provided for; but said officer of registration shall not put on the list of voters the name of any person who was entered on the original book of registration as disqualified under the third, fourth, or fifth sections of article first of the Constitution, without full legal proof that such disqualification has been removed, in the manner prescribed in said sections of said article in the Constitution.

28. If any person who has been registered as a legal voter in one district or precinct shall remove into another, he shall take from the officer or officers, or the clerk of the court in which said lists or books may be deposited, a certificate of the facts of his registration in such district or precinct, and it shall be the duty of the officers of registration to notify each other of such removal, certificates and re-registration, and unless the provisions of this section are complied with, such person shall not be
