

ARTICLE XLI.

Fish and Fisheries.

POTOMAC.

Chapter 135 amends section 21, as follows :

SEC. 1. It shall not be lawful for any person, other than the owner or by the permission of the owner, to take or carry away from any shore of the Potomac river below Fort Washington which has been or may be used as a fishery, any sand, gravel or other matter that may form part of said shore to the amount of twenty bushels or more, and if any person shall feloniously steal, take and carry away from any shore of the Potomac river below Fort Washington, which has been or may be used as a fishery, any sand, gravel or other matter that may form part of said shore to the amount of twenty bushels or more, such person shall be deemed guilty of larceny, and on conviction thereof in the Circuit Court of the county in which such larceny was committed, shall pay to the owner the full value thereof, and be sentenced to the penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than five years.

In force from March 24, 1865.

ARTICLE XLIV.

Hospital—Maryland.

Chapter 136 amends section 10, as follows :

SEC. 1. The president and visitors of the Maryland Hospital shall receive from each county and the city of Baltimore, two hundred dollars per annum, for the support of each pauper lunatic sent from said county or city to said hospital.

In force from March 24, 1865.