

26. All money arising from the proceeds of the issue of licenses or from fines, penalties or forfeitures, imposed under this article, shall, by the Comptroller, be placed to the credit of the "Oyster Fund;" and the Comptroller is hereby required in his annual report hereafter, to state particularly the receipts and expenditures on account of said fund, and its conclusion at the time of making said report.

27. The provisions of this bill shall not apply to any person or persons who buy the oysters from any party or parties authorized and licensed to catch oysters with tongs or rakes, in any of the waters of this State.

In force from March 22, 1865.

ARTICLE LXXV.

Pleadings, Practice and Process.

REMOVAL OF CAUSES.

Chapter 187 repeals sections 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, and enacts the following in lieu thereof. (I. Supplement, 62; II. Supplement, 53:)

SEC. 1. In all suits or actions at law issued from the Orphans' Courts, or other courts sitting in equity, and in all presentments or indictments now pending, or which may be pending at the time of the passage of this act, or which may be hereafter instituted in any of the courts of this State, except the Court of Appeals, having jurisdiction thereof, the judge or judges thereof upon suggestion in writing, if made by the State's Attorney or the prosecutor for the State, or upon suggestion in writing, supported by affidavit made by any of the parties thereto, or whenever any party to such cause or the counsel of any party shall, by other proper evidence make it satisfactorily appear to the court, that such party cannot have a fair and impartial trial in the court in which such suit or action, issue, or petition, presentment, or indictment is pending, shall order and direct the record of proceeding in such suit or action,
