

62. Children living remote from the public school of the school district in which they reside, may attend the school in an adjoining district, under such directions as the commissioner may prescribe.

63. No child shall be admitted to any public school who shall not produce a certificate from a regular physician, that he or she has been properly vaccinated.

TEXT BOOKS.

64. To secure harmony in the system of public instruction, and to enable children moving from one county to another to pursue their studies without interruption or unnecessary expense to parents or guardians, and also to prepare advanced pupils, uniformly for the higher grades of instruction in high schools and colleges, there shall be a uniform series of text books used in all the schools of the State organized under this law.

65. The uniform series of text books shall be prescribed by the State Board of Education, and may be contracted for by them as hereinbefore provided for, and shall be distributed by the State Superintendent to the boards of school commissioners, in quantities and at times as advised by them.

66. On the first day of July each year, the several boards of city and county school commissioners, may send to the office of the State Superintendent, a schedule of books and stationery required for the use of schools in their cities and counties, during the following school year, stating when and in what quantities they shall be forwarded; bills of books forwarded shall be made out and sent to the board of school commissioners, who shall immediately pay for the same.

67. The accounts for purchase and distribution of text books and stationery, shall be kept separate and distinct from all other accounts connected with the office of the State Superintendent, and a full statement of contracts, receipts and disbursements, shall be made annually to the Governor or General Assembly, and appended to the report of said superintendent.
