

use of the county commissioners, in the full sum of county taxes placed in their hands respectively for collection, said bonds to be approved by the county commissioners for said county, and to be given within ten days from the date of appointment, and upon failure to do so the county commissioners to appoint a successor.

In force from March 7, 1865.

Chapter 96 also, amends section 3 of this article in I. Supplement 16, as follows :

2. The county commissioners for Baltimore county are hereby authorized and required to appoint eleven collectors upon the first Tuesday in March next, and bi-annually thereafter, who shall hold their office for two years, for the collection of State and county taxes, one for each of the collection districts, as composed in the second section of the act of eighteen hundred and sixty-two, chapter one hundred and fifty-nine, (section 2 of article 3 in I. Supplement 15 ;) and said collectors shall each give a bond annually to the State of Maryland, in the full sum of State taxes placed in their hands respectively for collection, and also a bond to the State of Maryland, for the use of the county commissioners, in the full sum of county taxes placed in their hands respectively for collection, said bonds to be approved by the county commissioners for said county, and to be given within ten days from the date of appointment, and upon failure to do so, the county commissioners to appoint a successor.

3. The county commissioners for said county are authorized and empowered to remove from the office of collector in any of the districts aforesaid, any collector, who in their judgment has failed to perform the duties of said office faithfully and efficiently, and to appoint another in his stead, who shall be required to give bond in the same manner as the other collectors.

In force from February 25, 1865.