

7. The fines and penalties imposed by these additional sections shall be recovered and collected in the same manner as other fines and penalties of a like amount are now recovered and collected, and shall be paid over to the same parties, for the same purposes, as is provided for in section one hundred and forty-eight of this article.

In force from March 23, 1865.

HORSES AND CARRIAGES AT LIVERY.

Chapter 163 adds the following sections under the above sub-title :

8. It shall be lawful for any livery stable keeper to retain in his custody, any horse, mare or gelding, placed under his care for livery, and also any vehicle, until all charges for so keeping shall have been paid by the owner or owners thereof.

9. It shall and may be lawful for such livery stable keeper to sell any such horse, mare or gelding, or vehicle, at public auction, in the city of Baltimore, after giving at least twenty days notice in two of the daily newspapers published in the city of Baltimore, of the time, place and manner of sale, and after deducting the amount due for keeping, together with all expenses of said sale, to return the surplus, if any, to the owner of such horse, mare or gelding, or vehicle.

10. Before proceeding as above, it shall be necessary for such livery stable keeper to state an account for the keeping of such horse, mare or gelding, or vehicle, and prove the same before a justice of the peace for the city of Baltimore, who upon being satisfied by proof of demand and refusal or neglect to pay on the part of the owner, shall thereupon issue his warrant authorizing such sale as aforesaid; provided, that the proprietors of such livery stables shall set up on his premises, in some conspicuous place, a copy of the foregoing sections, printed in large type, and his rates of livery.

In force from March 24, 1865.
