

or furnish any salt for the curing or salting of any fish that shall be inspected in said city, under the penalty of forfeiting and paying for every offence five dollars.

28. If the inspector shall charge or receive any greater fee or reward for inspection than is allowed by this article, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars, to be adjudged on indictment and conviction in the Criminal Court of Baltimore, one-half to the informer and the other half to the use of the State.

29. It shall be the duty of the inspector promptly to obey any notice he may receive requiring his attendance in any place in said city, and should he refuse to attend after receiving such notice for the space of four hours, he shall be liable to a fine of ten dollars.

30. All fines and forfeitures herein imposed, except as hereinbefore provided, if over one hundred dollars, shall be recoverable by suit in the name of the State, in the Criminal Court of Baltimore, and if under one hundred dollars, before a justice of the Peace, one-half to the informer and the other half to the use of the State.

Passed March 24, 1865.

HAY AND STRAW.

Chapter 165 repeals section 413, and re-enacts the same as follows:

31. The said inspector shall be entitled to demand and receive for each and every load of hay and straw inspected by him, of whatever weight, one cent and one-half of a cent per hundred pounds; and for weighing hemp, cable, anchors, dye-woods, bark, etc., two cents per hundred pounds.

In force from March 15, 1865.
