

TOBACCO.

Chapter 6 amends section 26 of 1864, chapter 346, (section 60 of article 4 in II. Supplement 55) as follows :

32. Every Hogshead of tobacco which has been sold by the grower thereof, or his agent, and shall remain in any warehouse or elsewhere under the charge of an inspector for a period of more than six months from the date of its inspection, shall be liable to a charge of fifteen cents per month storage for every month after the expiration of said six months, to be paid before said tobacco shall be removed ; provided however, that no tobacco shall be liable to any charge for storage which was in any warehouse or elsewhere under the charge of an inspector on the tenth day of March eighteen hundred and sixty-four.

In force from February 1, 1865.

Chapter 194 repeals sections 5, 26, 27 of 1864, chapter 346, (sections 39, 60, 61 of article 4 in II. Supplement 50, 55, 56,) and re-enacts the same as follows :

33. Each of said tobacco inspectors, as soon as possible after qualifying, shall take charge of the warehouse to which he may be appointed, and of all the tobacco, books, furniture, implements, appurtenances and effects found therein, and shall receipt to his predecessor therefor, and shall employ such clerks and laborers, provide and keep on hand such books, implements and materials as may be necessary for the economical and effective discharge of his duties as inspector. The chief clerk of the respective tobacco warehouses shall receive each twelve hundred dollars per annum, the receiving and shipping clerks shall receive each nine hundred dollars per annum, the weighing clerks shall receive each nine hundred dollars per annum, the screwmen two dollars and fifty cents per day, and the laborers of the back gang two dollars per day, all of which shall be paid by the inspectors from the receipts into their respective offices. The inspectors shall at no time employ more labor than is necessary for the effective performance of the work to be done, and in his quarterly return to the Comptroller of the State, each inspector shall state the average number of screwmen and laborers employed in his warehouse during said
