

37. And the sheriff of Baltimore city, or such of his deputies as he shall designate, shall attend before the said clerks, and it shall be the duty of the said sheriff, or his deputy as aforesaid, in the presence of the said clerks and such other persons as may choose to attend in said court, to draw, one by one, all the ballots contained in the said box, and as the said ballots are drawn, the names appearing thereon, shall be duly recorded in the order in which they shall be drawn by the said clerks, or under their personal direction and inspection, by some person to be appointed by the judges aforesaid.

In force from March 10, 1865.

POLICE.

Chapter 46 amends sections 811, 812 as follows: (I. Supplement, 48; II. Supplement, 64.)

38. The pay of an ordinary policeman shall be eighteen dollars a week, payable semi-monthly; and in case the board shall appoint detective policemen, which they may to the number of five, the detectives shall receive the sum of twenty dollars a week, payable semi-monthly; the said detectives shall not be allowed to follow any other business, but shall devote their whole time to their duties as detectives.

39. The officers of the police shall be paid semi-monthly, and their pay shall be as follows: The marshal shall receive eighteen hundred dollars a year; the deputy marshal shall receive thirteen hundred a year; each captain twenty-two dollars a week; each lieutenant twenty dollars a week; each sergeant nineteen dollars a week; and each turnkey fourteen dollars a week.

40. The pay herein provided for the policemen and officers of police aforesaid, shall continue only until the first day of April eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, and from and after said day the pay of said policemen and detective policemen and officers of police, shall be the same as now provided by law.

In force from March 10, 1865.