

CIRCUIT COURT.

Chapter 2 repeals section 7, and re-enacts the same, as follows:

SEC. 1. The next session of the Circuit Court for Carroll county shall commence on the second Monday in May next, instead of the first Monday in April next, as now provided by law, and all process and writs original, mesne or judicial, now issued from said court, purporting to be returnable on the first Monday in April next, shall be returnable on the second Monday in May next, and have the same validity and effect when so returned, as if originally issued returnable on the second Monday in May next, and all subsequent sessions of said court, now prescribed by law to commence and be held at Westminster on the first Monday in April, and the first Monday in September, in each and every year, shall commence and be held at Westminster on the second Monday in May and the second Monday in November, respectively, and all writs and process shall be made returnable accordingly.

In force from January 15, 1865.

SHERIFF.

Chapter 112 repeals 1864, ch. 351, (II. Supplement, 72,) and re-enacts the same, as follows:

2. The sheriff of Carroll county shall be entitled to such sum of money, per day, for boarding each prisoner, or person committed to or confined in the jail of said county, as the county commissioner of said county shall determine, not to exceed seventy-five cents per day for such prisoner or person, and the said county commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to pay to the sheriff of Carroll county accordingly from the first day of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-four.

In force from March 20, 1865.
