

city of Baltimore, or the county of their residence, on the days appointed by law for holding state, county, congressional or presidential elections of this state, or on the days appointed by the proper authority for holding special elections to fill vacancies, such qualified voters shall be entitled at such time to exercise the right of suffrage as fully as if they were present at their usual places of voting.

Ibid. s. 3.
Polls for qualified electors in each regiment or company.

87. A poll shall be opened in each regiment or company, at the quarters of the commanding officer of said regiment or company; and all duly qualified electors of this state, belonging to such regiment or company, who shall be on duty or in hospital at or near such quarters on the day of election, may vote at such poll.

Ibid. s. 4
How long such polls to be open and votes received, proviso.

88. Such polls shall be opened at nine o'clock in the morning, and closed at five o'clock in the afternoon; provided, nevertheless, that such election may be held or polls opened for the reception of the votes of the duly qualified electors at any time within five days thereafter, if from the emergencies or duties of the service, such electors cannot exercise their right of suffrage on the day appointed by law for any general election in this state.

Ibid. s. 5
How judges of such elections appointed and their duties and oath.

89. The county commissioners of the respective counties, and the mayor and city council of Baltimore, shall, at least twenty days before any general election, appoint one or more persons, if they shall deem it necessary, to act as judges at such election, and two or more counties may appoint the same judge or judges of election, and shall furnish the poll books and other matters necessary for the holding and conducting of said election for their own county and the city of Baltimore, respectively; and it shall be the duty of said judge or judges to keep separate the ballots and poll books for each county, or the legislative districts of the city of Baltimore, and in all other respects said elections shall be conducted as provided for in the constitution and laws of the state, and whenever the mayor and city coun-
