

securely, and keeping the key or seal thereof himself, shall deposit the said box containing the remaining ballots with the clerk of the said court to be by him safely kept, free from any handling or interference by any person whatever, unless it be in the presence of the said judge, and by his direction, and then only in the manner herein directed; and if for the trial of any cause or causes, whether civil or criminal in the said circuit court, a talesman or talesmen be required, the judge of the said court may order the sheriff to summon such talesman or talesmen either from a list of names that shall be drawn from the said box containing the said ballots in the mode and manner as directed by the third section of this act and furnished to the said sheriff; or from the community at large as heretofore practiced.

23. Of the forty-eight jurors drawn and summoned as in the third section of this act directed, the twenty-three names first occurring in the order in which they were drawn, shall constitute and be the grand jury for the ensuing term of the said court, and the remaining twenty-five names next in order in the drawing, shall constitute and be the petit jury of said ensuing term of said court.

Ibid s. 5
Who shall be the grand and petit jurors.

24. The name of no person disqualified or exempted by existing law from serving as a juror, or who, by existing law, the sheriff is forbidden to summon as such, shall be selected and placed upon the panel, or list from which the drawing is to be made, as directed by this act, nor shall any person be drawn and summoned to two courts successively; and the said court shall have full power and authority to coerce the attendance of jurors drawn and summoned under this act, and to punish by fine or imprisonment, or both, for any default or contempt committed in disregarding such summons.

Ibid s. 6.
Persons disqualified,

Attendance of jurors.

25. Before the drawing of any new panel of jurors from the tax lists and poll books as provided in the first and second sections of this act, it shall be the duty of the said courts to have the box in

Ibid, s 7.
Ballot box to be emptied.