

6. It shall be the duty of the permanent board of examiners to meet on the first Monday in September, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, and annually thereafter on the first Monday in April, for the purpose of granting and renewing licenses, the board shall grant licenses only to those candidates who, by a careful examination are ascertained to have a proper knowledge of natural philosophy, chemistry, anatomy, physiology, materia medica and therapeutics and the principles and practice of medicine, of surgery, and of obstetrics, and shall renew licenses that may have been obtained from the temporary as well as those obtained from the permanent boards, without subjecting applicants to an examination; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to prevent said board from granting special licenses, after proper examination to such as may desire to practice only one or more of the branches above enumerated; provided, also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to prescribe the mode or manner in which diseases are to be treated, every physician having proven that he has a proper knowledge of the principles of medicine, shall be at liberty to treat diseases according to his individual honest convictions.

Ibid. s. 6
Permanent board of examiners to meet annually.

Their duties.

Licenses.

Provisos.

7. Each physician shall renew his license at the annual meeting of the board of examiners, and shall pay five dollars for the same; provided, however, that if he can prove that he has attended the last preceding annual election of examiners, he shall pay only two dollars into the treasury of the board.

Ibid. s. 7.
License to be renewed.

Proviso.

8. After the election of the aforesaid permanent medical board, no person shall be permitted to practice medicine, surgery, or obstetrics and receive payment for his services, without having first obtained a license certified as directed by this law, under a penalty of one hundred dollars for each offence.

Ibid. s. 8.
No one allowed to practice without license

9. No person not authorized by this act to practice medicine, surgery, or obstetrics, shall be permitted to practice any of those branches in the name

Ibid. s. 9.
No allowed to practice in the name or as partner of another.