

the satisfaction of the inspector-general, the members thereof may be re-imbursed for the expense either in whole or in part, to an amount not exceeding twenty dollars per man, so soon as the military fund of the state shall warrant.

13. The military forces of this state, when in actual service of this state in time of war, insurrection, invasion, riots or imminent danger thereof, shall during the time of such service, be entitled to the same pay, rations and other allowances as are or may be hereafter established by law for the army of the United States; and whenever any officers, non-commissioned officers or soldiers shall perform camp, garrison, guard or other duty under the orders of the commander-in-chief or by virtue of general regulations, they shall be entitled to the same rate of pay as hereinbefore provided for every day actually employed in the performance of such duty.

14. Every person who whilst in the actual military service of this state shall be wounded or disabled in opposing or suppressing any invasion, insurrection or riot shall be entitled to receive a pension from the state equal to the amount allowed by the United States.

15. Uniforms, arms and accoutrements of the national guard shall be exempt from all suits, distresses, executions or sales for debts or for the payment of taxes, and every mounted officer or any member of a troop or light battery who shall own a suitable horse necessary for his use as such officer or member shall hold the same with the like exemption.

16. All persons liable to military duty other than members of the national guard shall be enrolled and be commanded by the captain of the company, district or other officer assigned to such duty.

17. The inspector-general shall attend to the organization of the militia of this state; he shall inspect every branch connected with the military service, attend general parades and encampments,